

Mr. Earl R Chow

Acting Deputy to the Garrison Commander

Mr. Earl Chow a graduate of the Navy Officer Candidate School in Pensacola Florida and was commissioned as an Ensign in November 2002. He is a graduate of California Polytechnic State University, San Luis Obispo with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Civil Engineering.

Mr. Chow's previous Duties include: Assistant Resident Officer in Charge of Construction at NAVFAC Marianas; Assistant Public Works Officer Marine Corps Air Ground Combat Center Twentynine Palms; Assistant Public Works Officer Camp Lemonier Djibouti; Public Works Officer, Naval Hospital Twentynine Palms.

He commanded a Naval Mobile Construction Company deploying three separate times to Ramadi, Iraq and Rota, Spain. In his final assignment he was assigned as a Professor of Contract Management and Facilities Engineering at Defense Acquisition University in Port Hueneme CA.

At DAU he also served as an advisor to CECOS Basic students. He left active duty in March 2013 and continued to serve as a Department of The Army Civilian as the Deputy Public Works Officer for the Public Works Department in Chinhae Korea. In February 2013 he became the Director of Public Works at Parks Reserve Forces Training Area.

Mr. Chow is a Registered Professional Civil Engineer in the State of California. He is also a Certified Energy Manager. He holds a Level 3 DAWIA certification in the Contracting and Facilities Engineering career fields. He is a member of the Defense Acquisition Corps.

His military awards include the Joint Service Commendation Medal, Navy Marine Corps Commendation, Navy Achievement Medal, and various unit awards. He is also a qualified Seabee Combat Warfare officer.

Mr. Earl Chow hails from Sacramento CA and is married to the former Miss K. Wong and they have a daughter a son.