Specialist Elizabeth Wafflard and Chesley "Sully" Sullenberger 'Hero of the Hudson' exchange greetings during a welcome home ceremony conducted by the Sentinels of Freedom Foundation of San Ramon California. The foundation awarded Wafflard a scholarship for up to four years which includes rent-free housing, new furniture and other household supplies, career-placement assistance and training, new adaptive vehicle, educational opportunities, and financial and personal mentorship. Wafflard was wounded by an IED attack during convoy operations in Iraq. More information about Sentinels of Freedom can be found at: www.sentinelsoffreedom.org
